Jennifer Lea Evans
Memorial Scholarship
$2,000 Award
for 2016

Award Criteria:

- Rising senior at Emory College
- Plans to pursue a career in Pediatric Medicine
- Dedicated to caring for sick, injured or disabled children
- With demonstrated experience working with children (high school and college)
- 3.3 cumulative GPA, majoring in natural science or mathematics

The Jennifer Evans Scholarship is awarded annually (since 1997) to a rising senior in Emory College. The awardees aspirations must be to care for children in a health-related profession. Jennifer Lea Evans, a 21-year-old Oxford College alumna and Emory College student, was slain June 1995, while vacationing in Virginia Beach. Jennifer had dreams of one day becoming a physician involved in children’s rehabilitative medicine. The $2,000 award is to be used to cover educational expenses in his or her senior year in Emory College. Oxford College graduates are encouraged to apply. The Jennifer Evans Scholarship will be presented at the Oxford College Awards Banquet on Wednesday, April 20, 2016 at 5:30 p.m.

Interested students may apply by sending the following materials by noon Monday, April 11 to Dr. Eloise Carter, Division of Natural Science and Mathematics, Oxford College, Oxford, GA 30054, (770)784-8397.

- Personal statement of 250 words or less addressing the above selection criteria
- Transcript (unofficial is acceptable)
- List of pertinent work experience and volunteer activities
- Two letters of reference