DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY
UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT
FIELD COURSE SCHOLARSHIP REQUEST

Department of Biology majors are eligible for scholarship funds in order to cover the cost of Biology Field Coursework.

1) The Biology Department has need-based scholarship funds for field courses; however, we are unable to provide funds for travel to scientific meetings.
2) Students must be a declared Biology major.
3) Coursework must have a Biology course number.
4) Scholarships are need-based; students must be receiving financial aid currently.
5) Students must submit a written request for funds accompanying this form, explaining the need for funding.
6) The Department of Biology does not provide full course funding; we will provide approved students with matching funds to cover the full course registration costs.
7) Funds may be used for national or international Emory Biology courses.
8) Scholarship requests must be approved prior to course registration.
9) The Biology Department will provide each awardee with a maximum of $2,500 for Biology Field coursework over the student’s undergraduate academic career.

RECEIPT OF FINANCIAL AID DOES NOT GUARANTEE ACCEPTANCE INTO THE COURSE. YOU MUST GET INSTRUCTOR PERMISSION / APPROVAL.
