BIOLOGY HONORS CHECKLIST These deadlines are hard and fast. Please follow them.

[] Register for Biology 495A or 495A--WR (495BWR during graduation semester: Even if you have 8 or more Biology 499/495 credits, register for at least 1 credit of Bio 495BWR to meet the writing requirement for graduation).

[] Register for Fall or Spring semester graduate course

[] Aug. 14th: Email Barbara Shannon bshanno@emory.edu, the online Biology Honors Application; include for your advisor the links to the Biology Honors Requirements on biology website and College Honors FAQs!

[] Aug. 21st: Attend the Biology Honors Information session in room 1052, Rollins Research Center, 11 AM - 12 PM.

[] October: Attend one of the mandatory College Honors meetings in White Hall. Carlee Beard will contact you with dates.

[] Nov 1: Email research proposal to Dr. Alex Escobar.

[] Dec 6: Make sure your advisor has emailed your Fall Honors Biology Grade Report form to Dr. Alex Escobar.

[] Jan (date determined by College): Select committee (submit to Carlee Beard in College, cc alexander.escobar@emory.edu and bshanno@emory.edu) and provide committee with a copy of your proposal and a brief written progress report at that time.

[] March 1:15--minute oral progress report to committee. Submit progress report to Dr. Alex Escobar by March 3.

[] April (at least two weeks prior to date final written thesis due to College): Publication quality thesis to each committee members. Needs Approval Form signed by thesis advisor prior to be sent to committee.

[] April (at least one week before final thesis due to College to give student time to integrate committee’s comments): 30--minute oral thesis defense.

[] April due to College: Final corrected version of thesis approved by research advisor and submitted to College (ETD Thesis submission) (Hard copies of Honors forms due.

[] April 30: Ensure Spring Honors Biology Grade Report emailed by advisor to Dr. Alex Escobar.

[] May (Sunday before graduation): Honors graduation ceremony