

Figure 4.

Consistencies in human attractiveness over the first and second trial. (A) Relationship between mosquito activation on the first and second trial. (B) Relationship between mosquito orientation on the first and second trial. Volunteers from the dolo group ($n = 25$) are represented by closed circles and those from the water group ($n = 18$) by open circles. The lines are the least squares regression lines.